

The lodgings of the “Agriturismo Stazzi La China” reproduce the features and the aesthetics of the “Stazzo Gallurese”, only in Sardinia, and they are situated in panoramic points of the holiday farm, with sight on the valley.

The ground floor is a wide room composed by a small kitchen with the refrigerator and the whole material to cook and a place where to spend relaxing moments with a double bed-sofa. The bedroom is placed upstairs in the loft with a double bed and a single bed. The furnishing respects the tradition of the local farms, with woods of chestnut tree and rustic floors. The fireplace completes the atmosphere. All the lodgings are endowed with a bath, conditioned air and automatic heating. Bring with you your pets, but told us before. We will help you to make their stay more pleasant.
