

Your Guides

Augusto and Magdalena have lived in Gallura for 3 years: they arrived almost by chance and decided to stay as they were so enchanted by the charm of the land and by the warmth and hospitality of its people.

They have always loved life in the open air and with understanding the fascination of the Sardinian culture, they share with you the emotions and knowledge that helped them develop these programmed walks.

Have Fun !

What to bring along

For a relaxing and constructive day in the open air, we advise:

- ◆ suitable comfortable walking shoes
- ◆ comfortable trousers
- ◆ head covering and sunglasses
- ◆ sun screen (*)
- ◆ bathing costume (*)
- ◆ underwater mask (*)
- ◆ change of both a top and socks
- ◆ a windproof anorak or equivalent
- ◆ a rucksack to hold all necessary items
- ◆ a 1 litre water flask
- ◆ a picnic lunch

(*) only during the summer period

N.B.: During the summer months clothing should be light and it is important to protect against sun and wind.

In cooler periods it is important to have warm clothes but which allow your body to breathe. We advise layers in order to cater for physical effort and for all possible weather conditions.
